Food & Wine Magazine:

December 2005 - 10 Top Vineyards & Top Bottles

Silky Pinot, filled with seductive, sweet cherry flavor that lasts and lasts.

Wine Spectator:

91 Points - Medium ruby in color, yet intense and concentrated, with a tight, firm focus on zesty wild berry and black cherry fruit. Complex and deftly balanced, it offers hints of exotic spice, wilted rose and pepper, while avoiding excesses, offering a tapered finish and excellent structure.- JL

Pinot Report:

Deep, beautiful perfume, spice, earth, complex aromas, deep and balanced on the palate, delicious flavors.

“To drink Siduri is to drink some of the best Pinot Noir made in America today.”
